G.S.I. of California, Inc. and Teamsters Local Union No. 315, General Truck Drivers, Warehousemen, Helpers and Automotive Employees of Contra Costa County, AFL-CIO. Case 32– CA-14667

May 31, 1995

DECISION AND ORDER

BY MEMBERS STEPHENS, BROWNING, AND COHEN

Pursuant to a charge filed by the Union on April 13, 1995, the General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board issued a complaint on April 17, 1995, alleging that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the National Labor Relations Act by refusing the Union's request to bargain following the Union's certification in Case 32–RC–3915. (Official notice is taken of the "record" in the representation proceeding as defined in the Board's Rules and Regulations, Secs. 102.68 and 102.69(g); Frontier Hotel, 265 NLRB 343 (1982).) The Respondent filed an answer admitting in part and denying in part the allegations in the complaint and asserting affirmative defenses

On May 4, 1995, the General Counsel filed a Motion for Summary Judgment. On May 8, 1995, the Board issued an order transferring the proceeding to the Board and a Notice to Show Cause why the motion should not be granted. On May 22, 1995, the Respondent filed a response.

The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel.

Ruling on Motion for Summary Judgment

In its answer the Respondent admits its refusal to bargain, but attacks the validity of the certification on the basis of its objections to the election and the Board's unit determination and eligibility formula in the representation proceeding.

All representation issues raised by the Respondent were or could have been litigated in the prior representation proceeding. The Respondent does not offer to adduce at a hearing any newly discovered and previously unavailable evidence, nor does it allege any special circumstances that would require the Board to reexamine the decision made in the representation proceeding. We therefore find that the Respondent has not raised any representation issue that is properly litigable in this unfair labor practice proceeding. See Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. v. NLRB, 313 U.S. 146, 162 (1941).

Accordingly, we grant the Motion for Summary Judgment

On the entire record, the Board makes the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. JURISDICTION

At all times material, the Respondent, a California corporation with offices and places of business in Pittsburg and Rodeo, California, has been engaged in providing nonretail maintenance, repair, and new construction services. During the 12-month period preceding the issuance of the complaint, the Respondent, in the course and conduct of its business operations, purchased and received goods or services valued in excess of $50,000 directly from suppliers located outside the State of California.

We find that the Respondent is an employer engaged in commerce within the meaning of Section 2(2), (6), and (7) of the Act and that the Union is a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act.

II. ALLEGED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

A. The Certification

Following the election held November 3, 1994, the Union was certified on November 18, 1994, as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit:

All full-time and regular part-time maintenance employees, including welders, laborers, helpers, stage riggers, heavy metals A & B, mechanic craftsmen, and multi-craft employees, employed by the Employer at the Unocal refinery in Rodeo, California; excluding office clerical employees, professional employees, the timekeeper, field safety employees, guards, and supervisors as defined in the Act.

The Union continues to be the exclusive representative under Section 9(a) of the Act.

B. Refusal to Bargain

About March 31, 1995, the Union requested the Respondent to bargain, and since about April 7, 1995, the Respondent has refused. We find that this refusal constitutes an unlawful refusal to bargain in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

By refusing on and after April 7, 1995, to bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of employees in the appropriate unit, the Respondent has engaged in unfair labor practices affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

REMEDY

Having found that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act, we shall order it to cease and desist, to bargain on request with the Union, and, if an understanding is reached, to embody the understanding in a signed agreement.

To ensure that the employees are accorded the services of their selected bargaining agent for the period provided by the law, we shall construe the initial period of the certification as beginning the date the Respondent begins to bargain in good faith with the Union. - (b) Post at the Rodeo, California facility, copies of the attached notice marked "Appendix."
